It's wine, cheese and all that jazz as Topel Tasting Room hosts guitar duo

Healdsburg, CA, Wednesday, April 7, 2010—Lively jazz and bossa nova tunes will reverberate throughout the trendy Topel Tasting Room when the guitar and double bass duo of Jim Adams and Gary Digman perform live on April 24.

Adams, who is a native of Dallas, and Digman, who was born in Dubuque, IA, are popular musicians with a wide following in Wine Country. Adams has been performing at wineries in both Napa and Sonoma for more than 20 years and Digman has been a member of the music faculty at Santa Rosa Junior College for 30 years.

The concert, which runs from 5 to 7 p.m., is free of charge but regular wine tasting fees ($5 for four tastes) will apply. Topel will also sell wine by the glass for $5, and will provide complimentary cheese and other appetizers.

“It’s a perfect opportunity for those attending Dry Creek Passport Weekend to drop by, enjoy the music and wind down from their busy day before heading off to dinner,” said Donnis Topel, co-owner of Topel Winery and manager of the tasting room.

Topel Tasting Room, located just steps off Healdsburg Plaza at 125 Matheson Street, is hosting the concert in support of the 12th Annual Healdsburg Jazz Festival, which will feature a wide variety of performances June 4 – 13.
